MOVIE PREVIEW

He should have robbed a bank! John Hawkes stars as one of the unlucky captors.

LIFE OF CRIME

Jennifer Aniston, Isla Fisher, Tim Robbins, John Hawkes | R | Aug. 29

A cleverly plotted caper, this adaptation of Elmore Leonard's novel Switch stars Jennifer Aniston as Mickey, the wife of Frank Dawson (Tim Robbins), a corrupt Detroit real estate developer. She's kidnapped... and while her two captors plan to use her to extort money from her husband, there's something that the three of them don't know: Frank is actually in the Bahamas with his young mistress (Isla Fisher) and has just filed divorce papers — so does he even need to fork over the ransom?

TV PREVIEW

2014 MTV VIDEO MUSIC AWARDS

Sun., Aug. 24, at 9 PM ET on MTV

The annual 'Whoa, did you just see that?' awards show will feature a slew of hot performances from Usher, Maroon 5, Ariana Grande and, fresh off her On The Run tour, Queen Bey herself. The superstar will also receive the night's highest honor, the Michael Jackson Video Vanguard Award. Who knows — there might even be another baby bump reveal!

Newlywed Adam Levine will take the stage along with Beyoncé, who performed while pregnant in 2011.

OK! Q&A

DAVID TUTERA STAR OF DAVID TUTERA'S CELEBrations

If you already think party planning is stressful, just wait until David Tuter gives you a sneak peek of what it takes to put on an A-list event!

Tell us about your new show.

I love that it's all about celebrities. Viewers will get to see what happens when they throw an event — their behavior, their expectations and, sometimes, their inability to shut up!

Who was the toughest to work with?

Lil' Kim was five hours late to a four-hour party. You can do the math on that: It means the party was over.

Were there any parties that you really did not want to plan?

Tanisha Thomas from Bad Girls Club asked me to do her divorce party. I lost it, because I think that's completely inappropriate.

Who would you love to work with?

If Lady Gaga gets married, I'd better do her wedding! I'd love to do Jennifer Hudson's too. She's so talented and has been through so much.

You're invited!
Be sure to catch the extravagant CELEBrations Fridays at 9 PM ET on WE tv.
